

Murray High School Wall of Honour

Purpose

The Murray High School Wall of Honour is a tribute to our past students who, through commitment and dedication, have attained exceptional personal or professional achievements and have made significant contributions in either their careers, the community, the nation and/or the world.

Murray High School has many outstanding past students who have used their education, talents, skills and experiences to become successful, positive contributors to society.

We believe that the successes of these past students should be recognized by the school community and that they will establish positive role models for today's students.
